

NeighborWorks Achieving Excellence Program

AE11 (2022-2024)

SANTIAGO BUNCE

AE COACH

santiagobunce@gmail.com

Orlando, FL

Santiago is an executive coach and facilitator with more than 12 years of experience supporting nonprofits, foundations, and networks throughout the United States and Latin America. He is the founder and principal of Secoya Strategies and his expertise includes management, leadership, network building, evaluation, and strategic design. Santiago has worked with organizations committed to community development, housing, health, and the environment, among others. He is a former adjunct professor at Loyola Marymount University and Lynn University's Watson Institute. Santiago holds an MPIA from the University of California, San Diego's School of Global Policy and Strategy.

ROGER LEWIS

AE COACH

roger.lewis5@gmail.com

Boulder, CO

Song: "Hey Béb " by Rhiannon Giddens

Roger Lewis is the principal coach/consultant of Roger Lewis & Associates based out of Boulder, CO. Since 2012, Roger has worked with community development leaders across the country in both urban and rural areas and in a range of fields including housing development, housing finance, homeownership services, asset management, urban agriculture, homeless services, community land trusts, Habitats, economic development organizations, and regional associations. Roger has been coaching with the NWA Sustainable Business Initiative since 2013 and in 2015 worked with Virginia CDC to develop and coach the award-winning program, Virginia Nonprofit Sustainability Challenge (now Mission Elevation).

Roger Lewis has over 30 years of professional experience in innovative housing and community development initiatives.

Roger's work is informed by his broad experience ranging from work in a family business to rural community development work overseas in the Peace Corps, from serving as a volunteer first-staff at an inner-city nonprofit to leading a national organization. Roger completed the NeighborWorks America Achieving Excellence Program (AE) and started his own enterprise focused on applying the AE framework. Roger has BS in Management Engineering from the University of Vermont. In 2021, Roger joined the AE coaching team. Roger and his wife have 3 adult children.

NeighborWorks Achieving Excellence Program

AE11 (2022-2024)

JILL FIORAVANTI

AE COACH

jillbfioravanti@gmail.com

Washington, DC

Song: "Livin' on a Prayer" by Bon Jovi

Jill Fioravanti is a consultant based in the Washington, DC area. She works closely with staff and senior management teams, Boards of Directors and their stakeholders to facilitate succession and sustainability planning, program development, process improvement, participatory decision-making and strategic planning efforts. In addition to serving as a coach to senior executives and senior leadership teams, Jill also conducts management and organizational assessments and supports nonprofits with executive searches.

To her consulting practice, Jill brings 10 years of expertise via several senior-level positions held from 2002-2012 at the Cabrillo Economic Development Corporation, a nationally recognized affordable housing organization in Ventura, CA. Responsibilities included launching the Community Building and Neighborhood Revitalization Department, establishing a non-profit affiliate that became CDFI-certified, and overseeing research, corporate grant writing, marketing and communications. She has served on several non-profit boards, including eight years as a Commissioner with the Housing Authority of the City of San Buenaventura, and is currently on the Board of the Interfaith Families Project. She is also a NeighborWorks Training Institute faculty member.

Jill holds a Bachelors in Psychology with a Minor in Urban Studies from Stanford University, completed the Coro Fellows Program in Public Affairs, and received a Master's in Business Administration with top honors from the UCLA Anderson School of Management. She and her husband have three daughters ages 12, 10 and 7, who keep her on her toes.

Doris Roach

AE COACH

doris@dorisroach.com

Boston, MA

Song: "Get Up Offa That Thing" by James Brown

Doris is a coach, consultant and facilitator serving clients in the nonprofit, public, and private sectors specializing in leadership, board, and team development. In addition to her coaching and consulting practice, Doris practiced business law with a Fortune 500 Company and was senior lecturer at Northeastern University College of Professional Studies where she taught courses on managing human resources and organizational behavior. She has served as a coach with NeighborWorks Excellence in Governance Program and Sustainable Business Initiative programs. Doris holds a JD from Northeastern University School of Law and is a professional certified coach.

NeighborWorks Achieving Excellence Program

AE11 (2022-2024)

SARA OROZCO

AE COACH

saraorozco@verizon.net

Boston, MA

Song: "Let's Get Loud" by Jennifer Lopez

Sara Orozco is a bilingual, bi-cultural independent consultant, executive coach, and licensed psychologist with over 25 years of experience working in the nonprofit sector, primarily in leadership development. She is deeply committed to racial justice and social equity and works, in partnership with her clients, to identify goals, outcomes, and strategies that advance and support equity, diversity, and inclusion within organizations and communities. Sara has served as a team coach for NeighborWorks America's Achieving Excellence Program (AEP) and Excellence in Governance Program (EIG) since 2015. In her spare time, she hones her storytelling skills and has performed in several Moth events in Massachusetts. She lives in Boston with her wife, dog, and twin sons when they are home from college.
